Victorian Era Research: Step 2

Directions: Now that we've taken information about the Victorian Era from websites, we need to give them credit! Use the guide below to help you cite your sources. Hint: This will come in handy when you create your Works Cited page for your PowerPoint.

Website #1:

Website Title (usually at the top of the page & the largest, boldest font)

_____

Author of Owner of Website (usually listed at very bottom of website, around the copyright date)

_____

The Year of Publication (usually listed at the very bottom- use the last updated date)

_____

The Type of Material

Web

The Date you visited the Website (list in this format: Dec. 7, 2009)

_____

Now, rewrite the information to look like this. Notice all the details of the punctuation and italics!

The Purdue OWL. Purdue U Writing Lab, 2008. Web. 27

Dec. 2008.
